Palm Sunday, Holy Week, Easter Sunday

From the Rector: Of Hearing what the Spirit is Saying to God's People

We are making a liturgical change beginning this Palm Sunday. It is a small change, but I think most meaningful. At the acclamations following the readings, instead of the reader saying, "the word of the Lord," the reader will instead say, "hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people." This form of versicle was used extensively in the second century church according to the Didache, a second century manual for liturgical practice and moral behavior. In my view it bids the hearers to engage their own imaginations as to the interpretation of these ancient texts we read Sunday after Sunday...bids us to hear critically and make studied judgment as to what the Spirit is saying in our own day, amid the changing circumstances of our 21st century world.... prayer in short, prayer being both speaking and hearing. Simply saying "the word of the Lord" offers no such invitation. It reminds me of my father's distaste for Walter Cronkite's (former CBS News anchor way-back-when) signature signing off of the evening news saying, "and that's the way it is," to which my father would ritualistically reply as he tapped the tobacco ashes out of his pipe, "well, not necessarily."

You hear me preach a great deal about our Christian lives being lived for the good of the whole...an ethic of sacrifice for our neighbor....to be the "good servants" living our lives for a better world... a world that God envisions for us all. I believe that, but there is more for us as the gathered people of faith...we are to read what it is the Spirit is doing, and name what the Spirit is doing...there is energy and authority (authority meaning confidence derived from practice and experience)....energy and authority in such work... The reason we gather as the church is to name and celebrate our lives in the Spirit....to sing and pray and praise our vocation into perspective....It is why we put so much emphasis on our liturgy....liturgy being artistic expression of what the good looks like... hearing and seeing what the Spirit is saying and doing in us. My children ask me, "isn't it just enough to do good in the world?"... and my answer is that we need as often as we can gather and, through the expression of beauty, in readings, in prayer and singing and procession, name the profound importance of our being vessels of the Spirit, oracles of truth no less, truth that is still becoming, never in stone....and sharing a symbolic common meal as sacred nurture in the Spirit for the way ahead....and most of all we need a place and time as community to give thanks for such a high calling.

Another way to put it is that ours is to make visible as well as audible the Spirit, and to celebrate our role in that work...this is no passive task, but a life of paying rapt attention to the Spirit's presence all around us, a life of continuous prayer, as it were...prayer being the rigorous art of paying attention...paying attention in each other, in nature, in the stranger, even in the shameful corners of our world, wherein most importantly we are to hear what the Spirit is saying and doing, and then our artful articulation of it... and our vital response to it. This is no solitary enterprise, but a collective and collaborative one that the Spirit requires...the Spirit that thrives in enlightened community.

"O wide embracing love, we read thee in the sky above; we read thee in the earth below, in seas that swell and streams that flow; we read thee best in him who came to bear for us the cross of shame; we read thy power to bless and save e'en in the darkness of the grave." (from de Tar Hymnal 1982) Read, mark, learn and inwardly digest...think and act in the Spirit with our fellow pilgrims along life's way....and forever hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people....and give thanks to God for it.

This is a two-week Herald! Please pay attention!

Wednesdays in Lent

Our programs for Lent continue for the next two Wednesdays. Morning Prayer begins at 9am, followed by Bible study in the chapel. At noon, Holy Eucharist is celebrated in the chapel. At 6pm, the chapel is the location for the Taizé service, followed by supper in Stirling Hall. The nursery is open at 5:45pm. Everyone is invited to participate in any or all of these activities.

Palm Sunday Crosses for this Sunday will be made in the kitchen of Stirling Hall beginning at 10:30am after the bible study on Wednesday, April 13. If you've always wanted to know how those things are put together, this is your chance to learn how! Everyone is invited; please bring a pair of scissors with you if you can!

Food Share this weekend!!

April dates for Food Share are Friday, the 15th and Saturday, the 16th. Come at 5:30pm on Friday to help pack the bags of food. On Saturday, arrive at Stirling Hall by 7:30am to help bag the frozen food; distribution of the food begins at 8am. These days are the beginning of Spring Break for public school kids — why not come out and help our hungry neighbors?!

The choirs of St. Michael and St. Cecelia

will have a combined rehearsal on Wednesday, April 20 at 4pm. There will be no rehearsal on Tuesday, April 19, for the St. Michael choir. Please mark your calendars!!

On Wednesday in Holy Week

(April 20), we will have the last Taizé service of Lent. Because Holy Week is such a solemn time, things will be just a bit different: there will be no supper following the service; during the service we will extend our silence somewhat in between songs and readings; and at the end of the service, people may remain in silence in the chapel as long as they would like.

Flower Guild: Easter Work Schedule

Wednesday, 4/20—pick up Easter lilies
Thursday, 4/21—prep work and cut flowers
Friday, 4/22—pick up cut flowers at florist
Friday afternoon—work on Easter lilies and entrance arch
Saturday, 4/23, 9:15am—altar flowers, swags and Paschal Candle

On Saturday, April 23, at 7:30pm, we begin the Great Fifty Days of Easter with the celebration of the Easter Vigil. An agapé meal, accompanied by the Excelsior Band, will follow the service in Stirling Hall. Everyone is asked to bring a potluck dish to share. Meat and beverages will be provided. Food can be dropped off at the kitchen before the service begins. Don't miss this fabulous event!

On Easter Morning there will be a lot of celebrating going on! We begin with the 8:00am service, which will be a full choral service. The nursery will be open from 7:45am until after the 10:30 service is over. Come sing your favorite Easter hymns! All are welcome.

At 9:00, stand-up breakfast will be served in the courtyard (weather permitting, of course). Everyone is asked to bring some type of finger-food to share. Tables will be set up in the courtyard.

At 9:30, we will flower the cross. All ages are asked to bring something blooming to decorate it. (It is helpful to wrap the stem in a damp paper towel and some foil.) Afterward, there will be an Easter egg hunt. If you are a young child, bring your Easter basket and join in the fun!

Do you have an Easter bonnet? If so, wear it and we'll take pictures of the All Saints' Ladies' Hat Society!

At 10:30, we will begin the morning's second full choral celebration of the Holy Eucharist. If you haven't come to one of the previous services on Saturday night or earlier in the day, this is the time to come sing, to rejoice, and to proclaim "Christ is risen!" All are welcome.

Following the 10:30 service is a champagne reception! Come and join the fun in the courtyard, weather permitting. There will still be time to have your Easter dinner and a nap! 😊

The Presiding Bishop's 2011 Easter message

April 07, 2011

The Resurrection must be understood in significantly different images and metaphors in the southern hemisphere, when Easter always arrives in the transition from summer to winter. Even as a hard, hard winter lingers on in northern climes, with unaccustomed April snow in many places, we yearn for the new life we know is waiting around the corner. As Christians, we're meant to have the same hunger for the new creation emerging all around us.

We can see the broken places of our world either as complete and utter disaster, or as seedbeds -- graves, even -- in which God is doing a new thing. The situation in Haiti is dire, yet day by day and person by person hope lightens and leavens. Plans are emerging for civic reconstruction in Port-au-Prince that would bless the nation with pride in its heritage and more effective government. The Episcopal Church is a partner in those possibilities, as the vision for a rebuilt cathedral takes form. The graves are becoming gardens, at Cathédrale Sainte-Trinité and Collège St. Pierre. New and more life-giving relationships are emerging between development ministries and the lives of the people. Resurrection is happening in many places, even if one must search for it, like looking for the first buds on the trees as ice and snow give way to the warmth of spring.

The aftermath of earthquake and tsunami in Japan continues to look a great deal like winter, and the trials and failures at Daiichi Fukushima currently resonate more with apocalypse than Easter. Yet across northeastern Japan the work of the faithful is feeding senior citizens, ministering to displaced persons in shelters, and prompting challenging questions about social priorities, energy use, and consumerist lifestyles.

The gift of Easter insists that human beings are capable of divine relationship, for as Athanasius put it, "God became human that human beings might become divine." The life, death, passion, and resurrection of Jesus are the cosmic insistence that nothing can separate us from the divine passion for humanity. Easter people are imprinted with the assurance that God is always working some new grace of creation out of death and destruction.

For most of us the dying is not cosmic. It may start with a small willingness to set aside self, or a new opportunity for grafting onto a greater whole. Or it may involve lowering the barriers between self and other to become more readily aware of our fundamental oneness, our common heritage as offspring of the Holy One. If we are to be followers of Jesus, we share the work he did on our behalf. We give thanks for the Resurrection, and we become part of Jesus' ongoing work, as we become aware of its power in our own lives.

May your Eastertide be filled with the grace of new life. Go, discover, and BE resurrection for the world around you.

The Most Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori
Presiding Bishop and Primate
The Episcopal Church

Many thanks to the EYC and parents, especially Clark Kelly, who sure can fry up some fabulous fish, for the wonderful Fish Fry Fundraiser on Sunday. All the food was terrific, everyone had fun, and $782 were raised toward the EYC Mission Experience this summer!

If that isn't enough, we also enjoyed the sound of The Next, a new up-and-coming band starring our own William Kelly. They are bound for rock-and-roll fame someday!

Special Ministries Camp

For more than 30 years, All Saints Parish has sent children from Leinkauf Elementary to Camp Beckwith for several days, paying for the children's tuition through fundraising and donation. This year's session will be Thursday, June 30 through Sunday, July 3 and we hope to be able to send 30 children again this summer.

This is a special time for these 2nd and 3rd graders, who will do things such as spend the night away from home, learn to swim, even ride across the Bay for the very first time. They love it and the Beckwith staff love them!

The cost to go to camp is $200 per child. Can you help by sponsoring one of these children? If so please make your check to All Saints Episcopal Church and mark it for Special Ministries Camp. Drop it by the church office, put it in the offering plate, or mail it; your help is appreciated!

Speaking of EYC Fundraisers!

The EYC is holding a garage sale on May 7 to raise money for their summer Mission Experience. Almost every type of knick knack, white elephant, furniture, etc, is welcome, but no clothing, please!

It's time to clean out and the sale is only a few weeks away.

Please bring donations to the EYC room Stirling Hall for storage.

For more information, call Catherine Mackey at 490-6675.
