From the Rector Of a Life without Shame

The more I read the Gospels the more I am convinced of their social, political and economic edges. Social, because these pieces of rhetoric address the way society is constructed, how we live together. The vertical social order is challenged by a new radical mutuality. Economic, because these gospels speak of wealth being shared and not hoarded. Political, because they challenge the power structure of their day favoring a new order that empowers all with agency. The Gospels speak of lives lived in dignity. The raised Jesus is a consummate metaphor for lives raised into the light of dignity, escaping the shame of life on the margins... Jesus tortured and shamed, and then raised into this new life.

Psychologists teach us that to bear shame is debilitating and often life threatening. Resurrection life is that which sets us free from shame, and that is what salvation is about... the ability to live life with dignity... and that is why our faith is not for us only but for the world... that we are to bring saving dignity into the shame filled lost corners of the world... that we are to raise others as Christ was raised until shame is no more... shame because one is poor... shame because one is hungry or thirsty... shame because one is imprisoned... shamed because one has no place to live... shame because one is an addict... shame because one is abused... shamed because one is unhealthy... social, political, economic. Resurrection requires us... we the raised body of the Christ given to the shamed of our world.

Resurrection is to stand with dignity, and not a distant singular event in history...but the life force that wakes us up to bear it each moment to the world so desperate for it... a world debilitated and life-threatening. Alleluia, Christ is risen, and we as well, and others yet to be, until all is utterly without shame, and all stand together as one raised body and live a common life of unceasing praise.

The Episcopal Church welcomes you

An appeal for help

For my Eagle Scout project, I am building movable partition walls to replace the blue tarps that create the sleeping areas for the families of IHN. I will also be cleaning out and organizing the closets in Stirling Hall to make room for them. Finally, I will be repairing or replacing the games in the EYC room for our IHN guests.

I am required to raise donations for the materials to build the partitions. Please make donations to me; you can send them to my home, 2556 S. Delwood Dr., Mobile, AL 36606 or leave them at the church for me to pick up. Once I have enough money I can start building. Any money left over will go to the church.

I have scheduled my first work day for April 17 at 10:30 at Stirling Hall, and would like to have help. Please come if you can.

Thank you,

Forrest Brewster

Food Share Weekend coming soon

The April Food Share event will take place next weekend. On Friday, 4/23, food bags will be packed at 5:30pm in Stirling Hall, and food distribution will be on Saturday, 4/24. We need able bodies to arrive by 7:15am on Saturday to help take the frozen items out and bag them; the distribution will start at 8am and you'll be finished before 9. Please mark your calendars and come join this vital ministry.

From 15 Place: an easy way to help

We have something new and exciting we'd like to share with you! It's the new 15 Place toolbar – once added to IE or Firefox, each time you search the Internet, about a penny is donated to 15 Place. This may not sound like a lot, but it certainly adds up, especially if everyone in your family and/or office uses it for their search engine! And if you initiate your online shopping through our toolbar, a percentage of your purchase from more than 1,300 stores (from Amazon to Zazzle!) will automatically be donated to 15 Place – at no cost to you (and you may even save money as the toolbar provides coupons and deals as well!).

Please pass this along to all of your friends. The two minutes it takes to add this toolbar to your browser can make a lifetime of difference! Get the toolbar NOW! <http://www.goodsearch.com/toolbar/15-place>.

Prison Ministry to Begin

If anyone is interested in participating in a Transition from Prison to Society Ministry or organizing committee for the same, please contact Danny Moreau at dmoreau@mobileccc.org or at 272-0041.

Friday Supper Club will be held this Friday night, April 16, at the home of Beth Har-daway, 6438B Cedar Bend Ct, phone 343-7765. Bring a dish and bring a friend. All are welcome!

Earth Day Liturgy

Our annual Earth Day eucharist will be held this year in the chapel on Thursday, April 22, at 5pm. Come join us for this time to give thanks for the world God created and to make ourselves aware of the responsibilities given to us by God to be good stewards of it.

Newcomers' Supper, April 22

A newcomers' supper will be held at the home of Jim and Katharine Flowers on Thursday, April 22, at 6:30 pm. Their address is 922 Conti St. Who is a newcomer? If you haven't been to a newcomers' supper before, you are new; if you have been to one, but still 'feel new,' you are new! Come join the Vestry and others and get to know them on an informal basis. Please call the church office to let us know if you are planning to come.

Directions: Go east on Government Street past All Saints to the traffic light at Common Street. Turn left. Turn right at the first street, which is Conti. The house is on the left. Parking is available in a small lot across the street.

Many thanks to the great IHN volunteers who make my job easy and our guests' stay worthwhile: Danielle Juzan, Penny Coleman, Amy Hamilton, Catherine Mackey, Forrest Brewster, Matt McDonald, Albert Lilly, Pete Mackey, Don Mosley, Woody Hannum, Lee Van Dyke, Jean Tucker, Michael Morrison, Curt Doyle, Clark Kelly, Martha Harris, Suzanne Cleveland, Beth Hardaway, Rosemary & Sarah Williams, and Martha Henessy. Further cudos: IHN told our recent guests that All Saints is their best church! Next visit is the July 11th week. Henry Brewster

All Saints Online Directory

Did you know that you can update your own information and pictures in the All Saints Online Directory? If you've been able to access the directory, you know that most of the pictures are several years old. If you and your family have recently had family portraits made or you have a favorite picture of your family, you can change the picture. Simply go to the website <http://www.membersonline.us/ase> and click on the "My Profile" button. Then click on "Edit". On the next screen you will see a place for Photo. Simply "Browse" through the photos on your computer until you find the picture you want. Click on that photo, and when it appears in your photo window, click "Keep Photo". You have now successfully changed your photo. If you have problems or need other information, email Andi Barrett at office@allsaintsmobile.org or aphill4314@comcast.net and she will be happy to assist you with it.

Have you noticed the blue tape on the floor of the chapel? The tape marks the staging area of a new play being rehearsed in the chapel. Here's an overview:

When a struggling contemporary art gallery can't pay the rent, owner Marian, aided by the ghost of her dead business partner, Mark, concocts a scheme to pass a local soccer mom's sculptures off as the work of an illiterate outsider artist from Dead Mule, Mississippi. The local art critic is taken in...but how long can the deception last?

The Centre for the Living Arts will present the premier of local playwright (and All Saints parishioner) Danielle Juzan's new comedy, Artbruted, in the Alabama Power Foundation Auditorium at Space 301. Performances will be May 7 and 8 at 8:00 p.m. and May 9 at 2:00 p.m. Admission is $15. Ivan Davidson is the director. Contact information: Cindy Phillips, 208-5677, cla.phillips@cityofmobile.org.

Many thanks also to ALL those who helped make Holy Week and Easter a wonderful journey: those who made palm crosses, acolytes, ushers, altar guild, flower guild, layweebers, Parish Life, cooks, decorators, confetti-throwers, bell-ringers, musicians, singers, egg-hiders, egg-finders and cleaner-uppers! Everything was glorious. Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Aid to Inmate Mothers (AIM)

works to sustain the relationship between mothers at Tutwiler Prison and their children. AIM arranges for visitation and provides schools supplies, uniforms, and birthday and holiday gifts. AIM also hosts a monthly Story-book Program at Tutwiler Prison. Volunteers record mothers reading a children's book and then send the tape and the book to the child, giving children the sound of their mothers' voices to listen to when they are lonely. Over the course of a year, about 400 women participate in the program. For some of the children, hearing their mother's recorded voice is the only contact they have. As one mother recently wrote to AIM, "My children do not get to come see me because they are at relatives who don't care to bring them to this correctional facility. To actually be able to send them a part of me, my voice reading them a story, as well as the gift of a book and personal message is such a blessing. I thank you all for this from the bottom of my heart."

Like many non-profits, AIM is struggling in this time of economic devastation. AIM is in need of new and gently used books for infants to 12 year olds, especially those with multi-cultural illustrations or stories. Books may be left in the church office for Kate Bonnici, who will pick them up and send to AIM. Donations are tax deductible. Checks should be made out to AIM and sent to the following address: Aid to Inmate Mothers, PO Box 986, Montgomery, AL 36101-0986. Thank you for helping AIM make a difference in the lives of mothers and children.

All Saints Parish Weekend at Beckwith is coming soon!

May 1 and 2 are the dates for our annual fun, relaxing, chilling out, fun, game-playing, pool-swimming, boat-paddling, fun, food-eating, talent-showing, (did we say fun?) time together.
