Pentecost & Trinity Sunday

From the Rector: Of the Great Fifty Days

We approach the Sunday of Pentecost, the fiftieth day after Easter...Many refer to Pentecost as the birthday of the Church...the day the church received the Holy Spirit, according to Luke, the writer of Acts. The writer of the Gospel of John tells us that the disciples received the Spirit on the day of Resurrection...so which is it? We of course know of accounts of the Spirit long before Pentecost and Easter...It is the Spirit of God that moves over the face of the deep in the very beginning...the birthday narrative in Genesis...It is God's Spirit that delivers the people of Israel from their Sojourn in the desert...

God's Spirit that resettles them after captivity in Babylon...The Spirit of God that inspires Mary's revolutionary song...It is the Spirit that lives and moves among us...bringing creative energy...like fire, like wind...two poignant metaphors we know well enough... and surely there are many more.

I get all kinds of spam, as you do, but there is no worse spam than religious spam...One "Christian" marketing group says their research shows that 56% of people who call themselves Christian have never experienced the Holy Spirit. They don't bother to define such an experience...we can probably imagine how they would define it...some ecstatic mountaintop supernatural close encounter...but my answer to them is that this 56% of respondents must not be paying attention. We are all of the Spirit, same DNA...embodying the life force...in every breath...in every instance of mitosis...in every meal shared...in the apprehension of beauty...at every touch...the Spirit is present bearing our world and we in it toward a perfect end...the end seen in glimpses in the means of our world becoming...the Spirit the very imagination of God which we share, creating and recreating the world...the wounds notwithstanding...the wounds not left behind by the Spirit, but honored as well...made whole in the end...the Spirit ever present...on the move, imagining the world into being...there is no choice in the matter...only choosing to pay attention.

I have said often that prayer is best defined as the art of paying attention. It is in our paying attention to each other and our world that we recognize the Spirit among us and in us. According to the Talmud, a fifth century compendium of Rabbinic teaching, the fifty days between Passover and the feast of Weeks, which corresponds precisely with our Christian fifty days between Easter and Pentecost, represents in Judaism a figurative lifetime of growing in the Spirit, maturing into the life of God...in truth fifty days a lifetime, an eternity in the life of God... not a dramatic singular moment...but every moment...sometimes a subtlety, often mundane and simple...and sometimes like wind and fire, these moments... Look for the Spirit everywhere, for there the Spirit will be, and so will we...as the Spirit has always been.

Pentecost Sunday, May 23

The feast of Pentecost underscores the poetic power of sound in wind and word. As told in the biblical account of the Acts of the Apostles (2:1), a great wind sweeps through the room where the disciples have gathered. Thrust into liminal space by the sound of the wind, each of the disciples is alight with the fire of the spirit of God and begins to speak of God's deeds of power in new ways. People who had gathered from every language and nation are able to understand this message. "Pentecost" is the Greek name for the Jewish Feast of Weeks, which falls 50 days after Passover. As the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles on this day, the name is applied to the Christian feast celebrating this event, 50 days after Easter. Red vestments are used on this festival day, a visual reminder of the gift of the Spirit which is accessible to us all.

To help 'dress' the entire church, please wear red, orange or yellow – the colors of fire!

VBS Volunteers needed!! Vacation Bible School seems far away from now, but it will be here before we know it! We need folks who like to have fun, who like to eat supper, who like to play games and tell stories and sing a song or two, and who like to have adventures, to help with VBS this summer! Planning needs to start soon so everything will be easy and relaxed by the end of July.

The dates are Monday, July 26, through Thursday, July 29, from 5:15-8:15pm for 3 year olds through rising 5th graders. The time includes supper. The program this year will be "Egypt: Joseph's Journey from Prison to Palace."

If you are interested in being part of the staff of VBS this year, please let us know by calling Jim or Mary at 438-2492. Rising 6th graders and up are encouraged to help as well as adults! Registration forms will be in next month's Heralds.

May Food Share is this weekend, May 21 & 22. You can help by packing food bags on Friday at 5:30 pm and/or distributing food on Saturday. Please come at 7:30am to help unload the frozen food. You will be finished by 9am!

REAP Prison Ministry

The first meeting of REAP (Re-Entry Assistance Program), a program to help those who are being released from prison to get back on their feet, will be on Wednesday, May 19th at 6:30pm in the Saad Room. Call Danny Moreau for any questions. 272-0041.

The Friday Night Supper Club

will have it's last get-together of the year this Friday, May 21, 7:00 p.m., at the home of Fred and Barbara South, 1112 Dauphin Street, phone 694-0143. Everyone is welcome!

The Thursday Night Supper Club will meet for the last time until Fall on Thursday, May 27, at 6:30pm. At the home of David and Celeste Powers, 959 Charleston St. The phone # is 432-7293. Everyone is welcome!

Pizza & A Movie, an occasional film offering from the Race Relations Committee of Mobile United will show the commercial film Five Minutes of Heaven on Sunday afternoon, June 13, at 5pm, beginning with pizza in the Saad Room. This award-winning movie "is replete with an almost-exquisite sensitivity and quest for understanding. It is perhaps impossible to erase the past, but we are better off for encountering it with the kind of passion and insight emanating from a true work of art." Don't miss this fine dramatic film starring Liam Neeson!

Our sympathies are offered to Michael Morrison and his family at the death of his father, Ernest Edward Morrison, on Sunday, May 16. The funeral will be Friday, May 21, in Meridian, MS. The schedule in Meridian is:

- 10-11am visitation at St. Paul's parish house
- 11am memorial service, St. Paul's
- Interment following the service at Magnolia Cemetery

Let light perpetual shine upon him.

From the Treasurer

The finance committee informs us that through April we are about $11,000 short of budgeted income. Please look to see if you are caught up with your pledge.

A litany for the Gulf of Mexico in a time of crisis

by the Rev. S. Albert Kennington

Glorify the Lord, O springs of water, seas, and streams,

O whales and all that move in the waters.

All birds of the air, glorify the Lord,

praise him and highly exalt him forever.

Glorify the Lord, O spirits and souls of the righteous,

praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

You that are holy and humble of heart, glorify the Lord,

praise him and highly exalt him forever.

The voice of the LORD is upon the waters;

the God of glory thunders; the LORD is upon the mighty waters.

The voice of the LORD is a powerful voice;

the voice of the LORD is a voice of splendor.

O Lord, how manifold are your works!

in wisdom you have made them all;

the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great,

There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan,

which you have made for the sport of it.

You give it to them; they gather it;

you open you hand, and they are filled with good things.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;

and so you renew the face of the earth.

For the waters of the Gulf of Mexico, that they may be kept pure as you created them.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who work on the waters that they be safe from harm; for all who have been injured, for all who have died, and for all who mourn.

Lord, have mercy.

For all who support their livelihood and the care of their families and communities from the harvest of the waters,

Lord, have mercy.

For all who live along these waters and for their livelihood, provide places of rest and recreation for others,

Lord, have mercy.

For all who explore the depths of the earth, even under the sea, for the resources of your creation for the common good,

Lord, have mercy.

For all creatures of your making and for the wonderful mysteries of natural habitats you have willed for them, that they be protected from all dangers,

Lord, have mercy.

For all in authority over us, in the government of our nation, our states, and communities, that they may serve your will for the common good, and no other,

Lord, have mercy.

For all who work to preserve us from the dangers of this present calamity, that they may be blessed with success and kept safe from all harm,

Lord, have mercy.

For our deliverance from fear, anxiety, and anger,

Lord, have mercy.

-continued next column

For your will to be done on earth as it is in heaven,
Lord, hear our prayer.

Mercifully hear us, O Lord our God.

Let our cry come to you.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen
