From the Rector: Of Paying Attention

Every now and again I try out the left side of my Brain by reading about the particle physics of string theory and quantum theory, and the reconciliation thereof....at least until I am so overwhelmed that I have to stop. String theory asserts that the universe, both matter and energy, at the quintessential rudimentary level, exists as one-dimensional vibrating strings, a tonality of matter and energy; that matter and energy share a heretofore unacknowledged intimacy; that they in short behave like music. Another part of the theory (as best I can understand it) is that when observed, the behavior of the strings change, because of this hyper-inter-relativity....the observer and the observed are changed in the process of observation....there now...I have to stop before my head (and yours, too) starts to ache.

This has got me thinking again about poetry. The poet and that which the poet observes in the eye of the imagination are changed...the strings of the universe, sent new vibrations of creativity, renew the reality of existence entire. Prayer is that way too, a creative act: Paying attention to our world with artful eye...and things change...the strings of the universe voiced with new music.

The reason we gather as people of faith is that we believe when in enlightened community, through prayer and worship, both creative acts of observation... the world is changed, recreated, or perhaps created for the first time, this artful observation perhaps participating in the first creative act at the very beginning.... "and God saw (observed) that it was good" ...the strings of the universe singing of a true and beautiful commonweal of matter and energy, animate and inanimate in which the timeless lives in artful intimacy with time; matter and energy lines of the same song...a song that moves amid the creation engendering there God's imagination in the flesh...holy artifice of the Good....what is and what might be, one string vibrating with love, no less.

Indeed there is a lot being written these days about the increasingly intimate relationship between spirituality and science....music and mathematics...art and logic...the right brain and left...but I think the key for us is that we be about our work of paying attention (my trusty definition of prayer; poems prayer as well)... paying attention as if our lives depended on it....as if? Our work is the work of singing the universe into being...and this work asks everything of us...everything...because in truth there is nothing else.

Royal School of Church Music VOICE for LIFE Program

Now is the time to sign up for the Training Choir. The Choir is open to 2nd grade and above. Rehearsals are each Tuesday 3:30-4:30 beginning September 7th. VOICE for LIFE is the RSCM's acclaimed guide to training choirs and singers of all ages. The VOICE for LIFE scheme provides a framework for choral singers to develop their vocal skills, their musical understanding, and their knowledge of the repertoire and the liturgy of the Episcopal Church. The choir sings at various times during the Liturgical Year with the Girls

Choir and Parish Choir. Contact Jeff Clearman to sign your child up today! (jeff@allsaintsmobile.org or 438-2492)

Fresh Start Ministries is a new group whose mission is to help people who have been newly released from jail or prison to get a fresh start. Meetings are held weekly on Thursdays at 6:30pm in the Saad Room of the Parish Hall. Anyone who is interested is welcome to attend. Questions? Call Danny Moreau at 272-0041.

Musicians on Continuing Education

Jeff Clearman, Principal Parish Musician, and Paul Roper, choir member, will be attending the Royal School of Church Music in America Charlotte Training Course for Boys, Girls, Teens, and Adults in Charlotte, North Carolina July 19-25. Richard Webster will serve as Music Director for the course. He is a composer, a church musician, choral conductor, and organist of wide renown...(and he and Mary Robert went to high school together!) Public services will include the 10:00 am Sunday Eucharist at St. John's Episcopal Church and the closing 4:00 pm Evensong at Myers Park Baptist Church on July 25.

The RSCM is an international, ecumenical, professional organization which promotes high standards of church music throughout the English-speaking world. It seeks to provide its 8,000 member choirs, in church, school, and community settings, quality publications and helpful programs to assist in the offering of the worthiest praise to God.

Phillips Preparatory School, a magnet middle school in Mobile, is a 'Box Tops School.' Many food products have this coupon on the packaging; if you cut them out and turn them in, the school makes money to use for various things that they need. (A list of some of the products with these coupons is posted on two bulletin boards in the Parish Hall.) Since Phillips is one of only a handful of schools in Mobile that is not a Title I school, it does not receive any Federal money and therefore must earn the money it needs. In the five years of being a Box Tops school, Phillips has earned more than $28,000! Many All Saints children are currently attending Phillips, so let's help them out with this program! Please collect these Box Tops and bring them to church with you on Sunday; a box is on the volunteer's desk to put them in. Thanks for your help!

Is Your Pledge Up to Date?

Pledge collections have fallen behind somewhat, as they do sometimes during the summer months. At the same time, a few expense items are running higher than budget—most notably utilities. Please help All Saints avoid a financial pinch by making sure your pledge is paid and up to date!

The EYC will leave for their Mission Trip to New Orleans on Sunday, July 18 and return early on Monday, July 26. Please keep them in your prayers!

Our prayers are offered to the family and friends of those who have died, especially: Timothy Dodge, son of Harold Dodge; Bubba Long, friend of the Barretts and the Hughes; Edith Anderson Meggs, aunt of Clayton Ryan; and Stanley E. Crawford, former long-time parishioner of All Saints.

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Refugee Pantry Items We need donations of items such as laundry soap, toilet paper, garbage bags & paper towels. Please put them in the church office or the Ann St. narthex. Thanks!

“Hometown Boy” to preach 7/25

Our guest preacher on July 25th will be Robert Berra. Robert was confirmed at All Saints in the Fall of 2007. After student-teaching under the supervision of Kathy MacKenzie at Murphy High School, Robert graduated in December 2007 from the University of South Alabama with a B.S. in Secondary Education and History. Robert was married to Laura Cleverdon Berra (John and Mickey Cleverdon's granddaughter, daughter of Geoffrey Cleverdon and Sharon Cleverdon) at All Saints' in June 2008. Shortly after, the couple relocated to Arizona, where Laura taught orchestra and Robert pursued a graduate degree at Arizona State University. He graduated from ASU in May 2010 with a M.A. in Religious Studies.

Along the way, Robert fully immersed himself in the local campus ministry and parish... and began exploring a call to ordained ministry. He has served as the Parish Administrator of St. Augustine's Parish in Tempe, AZ. The vicar of St. Augustine's also serves as the campus chaplain at ASU, and Robert closely assisted him on campus.

In January 2010, Robert was officially named a postulant for holy orders in the Diocese of Arizona. Under the guidance of Bishop Kirk Smith, Robert applied and was accepted to Yale Divinity School and the affiliated Episcopal seminary (Berkeley Divinity School). He will begin attending classes at Yale and Berkeley this September in New Haven, Connecticut.
